

Theodora marries Justinian

Theodora former actress and prostitute, mother of a child out of wedlock, has given us all hope as she is now in line to be Empress. Justinian had to literally change the laws in order to marry her and he did. Now, an actress can marry a man of the Senatorial class or higher. (No word yet on upper class women marrying actors). All we can say is we are excited by what this will bring. Hopefully more people will marry for love. Hopefully more women will be able to exert influence on government. Theodora, you go girl! She has the beauty and the brains.
